

Enlarging the place of your tent

Isaiah 54 states that we should enlarge the place of our tent. Your tent represents every area of your life. This is your “dwelling place”. Your dwelling place represents your life; spiritually, emotionally, mentally, in your body, your finances, your workplace, your family life and every other aspect of how are you interact with other people in society. Sometimes we feel that we’ve come to a place where we have reached the limits in some area of life and we do not know how to break through these barriers in life. How do I enlarge “my tent”? How do I change the things in which I feel so frustrated? What is the key to changing my destiny and seen greater success in what I do?

Come and learn how to change things and enlarge the place of your tent!!
